Pageant Wardrobe and Supplies Needed

These items are basic items needed to compete in the pageant and are not the only things you can wear or use. I just wanted the contestants to have a general idea of the basics that are needed.

- Black shorts(no spandex)
- Low profile tennis shoes (i.e., Keds or Vans)
- 2 Piece Interview suit (No pant suits)
- Heels and pantyhose for interview
- One piece pageant swim suit
- Taupe heels for swimsuit
- Heels for evening gown if you don't want to wear your taupe heels.
- Evening gown( No two piece dresses that show your mid-section, splits in skirt of dress can be no further than 4 inches above the middle of the knee, open backed dresses must stop at your natural waistline)
- Spray adhesive or Firm grip for swimsuit(I highly recommend not using roll on adhesive, it comes out too thick and will show on your swimsuit)
- Duct tape, double sided tape, curling/flat irons, bobby pins, safety-pins, hair spray, make-up for touch ups, etc. Anything you may need for your wardrobe, hair and face to fit and look proper for competition.

*** A t-shirt will be provided to all contestants for them to wear for contestant introductions that they will wear with the black shorts and low profile tennis shoes. All pageant wardrobe and your speech must be approved by the pageant director before pageant day. Wardrobe will be approved based on State Pageant guidelines.

*** Parents, friends, hair and make-up stylist will NOT be allowed in the trailers at any time. Once the pageant has started all individuals that are not a contestant or part of the pageant crew must leave the backstage area and cannot return until after the pageant is over.
